Baritone conference tables feature classic edge treatments and elegant carved legs and bases that hearken back to the time when attention to detail was a matter of course. Conference spaces are the ideal settings to display the lustrous cherry, mahogany, and walnut finishes of Baritone on stately podiums and white board cabinets as well as bookcases. Modular components create customized storage and display space united in good design.

Mobile computer workstations package modern ergonomics in a traditional design.

A keyboard and mouse can be housed within the drawer, while printer and CPU storage is below. Grommets allow cabling to be run neatly through the desktop.

Reception areas provide a formal introduction to your style. Transaction counters feature traditional raised panels and moldings in addition to concealed storage and wire management.

Infuse your twenty-first century workspace with classic American values, surround yourself in the warmth and richness of Baritone.

Working together to make a difference!
